THORNVILLE SHIELD for best driven Dales pony

H48 CONCOURS D'ELEGANCE

Judged by David & Ruth Guy, Marrick

The essence of the class is the word "elegance" and the winner will be the turnout which, in the opinion of the Judge, presents the most elegant effect. To include vehicle, horse, driver, passenger etc, but above all the general impression. Attention may be paid to drivers/passengers personal costume but fancy dress or period costume is definitely barred. The whole object of the class is to establish which turnout presents the most pleasing picture and normal judging criteria does not apply. It is judged from a distance and vehicles are not closely inspected. To be driven at park pace. Young Drivers - attention to young drivers rule.

Over the Hills and Far Away by William Ernest Henley

Where forlorn sunsets flare and fade
 On desolate sea and lonely sand,
 Out of the silence and the shade
 What is the voice of strange command
 Calling you still, as friend calls friend
 With love that cannot brook delay
 To rise and follow the ways that wend
 Over the hills and far away?

Hark in the city, street on street
 A roaring reach of death and life,
 Of vortices that clash and fleet
 And ruin in appointed strife,
 Hark to it calling, calling clear,
 Calling until you cannot stay
 From dearer things than your own most dear
 Over the hills and far away?

Out of the sound of the ebb-and-flow,
 Out of the sight of the lamp and star,
 It calls you where the good winds blow,
 And the unchanging meadows are;
 From faded hopes and hopes a gleam,
 It calls you, calls you night and day
 Beyond the dark into the dream
 Over the hills and far away.

HANDWRITING

Judge: Mark Cox, Keld

M184 HANDWRITING, Reception children (age 4-5)

A poem about bees

Through warm air,
With gentle care,
Bees go gliding
Everywhere

M185 HANDWRITING, Year 1 & Year 2 children (age 5-7)

An extract from George and the Dragon by Chris Wormell

Far, far away in the high, high mountains
in a deep, deep valley in a dark, dark cave... there lived a mighty dragon.
He could fly higher than the clouds and faster than all the birds.

M186 HANDWRITING, Year 3 & Year 4 children (age 7-9)

A poem about King Henry VIII and his wives

Divorced, beheaded, died,
Divorced, beheaded, survived.
Old Cath from Spain was number one,
She tried so very hard to give Henry a son,
When this failed and she started to age,
Henry's emotions turned from sadness to rage,
He started to plan a possible divorce,
But had to ask the Pope's permission, of course!

M187 HANDWRITING, Year 5 & Year 6 children (age 9-11)

Kingfisher* a poem from 'The Lost Words: A Spell Book' by Robert Macfarlane and Jackie Morris

Kingfisher: the colour-giver, fire-bringer, flame-flicker, river's quiver
Ink-black bill, orange throat, and a quick blue back-gleaming feather-stream
Neat and still it sits on the snag of a stick, until with...
Gold-flare, wing-fan, whipcrack the kingfisher - zingfisher, singfisher!
Flashes down too fast to follow, quick and quicker carves its hollow
In the water, slings its arrow superswift to swallow
Stickleback or shrimp or minnow
Halcyon is its other name - also ripple-calmer, water-nester,
Evening angler, weather-teller, rainbringer and
Rainbow bird - that sets the stream alight with burn and glitter!

M188 HANDWRITING, For children aged Twelve to Sixteen

The sea to the sea

From rugged cliffs where seabirds soar,
St Bees sets the feet upon the shore.
A stone in hand, to throw or keep,
Before the fells and valleys deep.
Across the marsh and western sand,
The journey takes this rugged land.

Through Lakeland's heart, the fells rise high,
A thousand feet against the sky.
By Mosedale's mist and Wasdale's green,
The toughest miles are often seen.
With boots well-worn and spirits high,
As Langrath holds the summer sky.

Then down the vale, to Dales I go,
Where Swaledale's heather starts to glow.
From Keld to Reeth, the path does wind,
Leaving the city far behind.
Drystone walls and heathered moor,
With beauty that I can't ignore.

Then North York Moors, a purple sea,
A final walk, for you and me.
Above the heather, high and vast,
The lonely, silent fells are passed.
To Whitby's coast, the North Sea's roar,
Robin Hood's Bay – I ask for more.
One hundred miles, and now the end,
A long held promise, broken friend.
